BIOGRAPHY

Sam Fargotstein is a Shareholder at Martin, Tate, Morrow & Marston, P.C. His practice focuses on commercial real estate, commercial lending, commercial leasing, mergers and acquisitions, corporate formation, and general corporate law. He represents landlords, tenants, buyers, and sellers of all sizes in acquisitions, dispositions, leasing, and property operations. Sam is also a member of the firm's Economic Development Team, where he advises clients on local tax incentive programs and transactions that promote economic growth in Memphis and Shelby County.

In addition to his transactional work, Sam has extensive trial and mediation experience in civil litigation matters. He is a Rule 31 Listed General Civil Mediator.

He earned his B.A. in Political Science from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, and his J.D. from the University of Memphis – Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law. Sam serves on the Board of Directors of the Wolf River Conservancy and the Board of Trustees of Temple Israel Synagogue. Outside of work, he enjoys spending time outdoors with his wife, Rebecca, and their two daughters, Brianna and Gemma.
