BIOGRAPHY

Price Morrison's practice focuses on estate planning, probate, wills, trusts, and estate administration. He is licensed to practice law in Tennessee and joined the firm in 1983.

He holds memberships in the Tennessee and Memphis Bar Associations and the Christian Legal Society. Best Lawyers in America has regularly recognized him, and he was named a Lawyer of the Year in Tennessee for 2021. He is also an Accredited Estate Planner and a Fellow of the Memphis Bar Association Foundation, and he often speaks to community groups on estate-related topics.

He is a past president and current member of the Estate Planning Council of Memphis and a director of the Second Presbyterian Church of Memphis Foundation. He has held leadership roles with several local organizations and schools, helped found JIFF, and serves as an elder at his church. He and his wife, Gray, have four adult daughters and ten grandchildren.
